Notice and Action Mechanism

If you want to notify us of the presence on our service of specific items of information that you consider to be illegal content, please use the form made available here and include the following:

(a) a sufficiently substantiated explanation of the reasons why you allege the information in question to be illegal content; (b) a clear indication of the exact electronic location of that information, such as the exact URL or URLs, and, where necessary, additional information enabling the identification of the illegal content adapted to the type of content and to the specific type of hosting service; (c) the name and email address of the individual or entity submitting the notice, except in the case of information considered to involve one of the offences referred to in Articles 3 to 7 of Directive 2011/93/EU (<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32011L0093>); (d) the statement confirming the bona fide belief of the individual or entity submitting the notice that the information and allegations contained therein are accurate and complete.

If and to the extent the services of bitiba qualify as those of an "online platform" as defined in Article 3 (i) DSA, additionally the following information apply:

Internal Complaint-Handling System

If you want to lodge a complaint against the decision taken by bitiba upon the receipt of a notice or against the following decisions taken by bitiba on the grounds that the information provided by you constitutes illegal content or is incompatible with bitiba' terms and conditions:

(a) decisions whether or not to remove or disable access to or restrict visibility of the information;

(b) decisions whether or not to suspend or terminate the provision of the service, in whole or in part, to you;

(c) decisions whether or not to suspend or terminate your account;

(d) decisions whether or not to suspend, terminate or otherwise restrict the ability to monetise information provided by you please use the following form: [link]

The complaint may be lodged within a period of six months following the receipt of the decision of bitiba free of charge.

Misuse of reporting and complaint procedures

To ensure the proper and efficient operation of our platform, we are entitled to take action against abusive behaviour in connection with the provision of content and the use of reporting and complaint procedures.

Abuse occurs in particular if BusinessUser repeats:

- provide manifestly illegal content, or
- make manifestly unsubstantiated reports or complaints about our procedures.

In the assessment, we take into account all the circumstances of the individual case, in particular the number, ratio, severity and effects of the conduct as well as a recognisable abusive aim.

Upon prior warning, we may – depending on the severity and duration of the abuse – restrict the processing of further reports or complaints or temporarily suspend access to the affected features.

Further contractual or statutory rights remain unaffected.

Out-of-court dispute resolution

If you are a recipient of zooplus's services as an online platform (as defined in the DSA), including natural or legal persons who have submitted communications affected by the decisions referred to in the "Internal Complaint Management System" paragraph above, you are entitled to choose any out-of-court dispute resolution body approved in accordance with Art. 21 (3) DSA to resolve disputes related to these decisions including complaints that could not be resolved through the internal complaints procedure referred to in the above paragraph.
