

Welcome to the zooplus Breeder Programme!

As a responsible breeder, the wellness of your animals is very important to you – and zooplus would like to help. That's why we'd like to invite you to join the zooplus Breeder Discount programme. As a member, you'll receive an 10% discount on all orders with a total value of £59 and over.

How do you become a member?

Please send the following information via our contact form:

- Name of kennel / cattery
- Registration number
- Association name
- Breed(s)
- Number of breeding animals
- Number of litters per year
- An electronic copy of your accreditation as a breeder

If you do not have an electronic copy of your accreditation, you can send your accreditation to the following address:

zooplus SEHerzog-Wilhelm-Strasse 1880331 MunichGermany

After Registration

- After your registration has been reviewed, you'll receive an email confirming your membership in the zooplus Breeder Discount programme.
- When you make your next purchase at zooplus, login using the email address and password that you entered in your Breeder Discount programme registration form. Your personal data will automatically appear for each order - there's no need to re-enter it.
- For technical reasons, the Breeder Discount programme is linked only to the email address used for registration. Unfortunately, it is not possible to credit you with a discount retrospectively.
- The 10% Breeder discount will be applied automatically to all orders with a total value of £59 and over.
- Your order will leave our warehouse within 48 hours and will be delivered free to the specified GB mainland address*. (*Not all postcodes qualify for free shipping. See Shipping & Delivery for detailed information.
- Please note that you cannot combine any other coupons or discounts with the Breeder Discount programme.
